STATE IS PREPARED TO ERECT ARMORY BUILDINGS

WASHINGTON IN LINE
FOR ARMORY NEXT YEAR
Local Boosters Must Get Busy and Stay Busy

The question of what has become of the State Armory for Washington has been asked times without number during the past several months, and so far as known the local men who manifested so much interest in it last fall when the huge petition was presented to the City Council, and that body voted to expend $5000 if necessary for a suitable location, have made little or no effort for months to keep the proposal alive.

Hillsboro has shown a more progressive attitude than this city, and is still making efforts to be among the first to secure an armory when the next appropriation is available. That the enterprising men of Hillsboro will succeed in securing the coveted armory for that city before one is erected here, there is every reason to believe. And the reason is that they are "keeping eternally at it."

Hillsboro may be one of the fortunate ones in securing one of the two armories to be started or constructed this year. Next year the appropriation will permit of five armories being constructed, and there is said to be absolutely no reason why this city should not be included among the five fortunate cities of Ohio.

It will be recalled that after Council had voted to expend $5000 for a suitable site for the $20,000 building to be erected here by the state if the proper site was furnished, a number of proposed sites were mentioned, but some delay resulted in having the State Armory Board view the various sites, with the result that their coming was postponed so long that it was eventually allowed to pass by unnoticed, and the Board has not yet visited this city to view one of the sites proposed.

Previous to the action of the City Council the State Armory Board came to this city and looked over the situation here, and approving the city lot on Market street. However, the majority of members of Council at that time favored another location and voted accordingly.

Recently the Business Men's Association of Hillsboro, took up the matter of securing an Armory there. The movement had been permitted to grow as it had here. Hillsboro had previously purchased a $5000 lot for an Armory site.

POMERENE AND OHIO PATRONAGE ARE DISCUSSED

GARBER SEES PRESIDENT

Pleads Earnestly For Recognition of Original Wilson Men.

Washington, May 23.—Harvey C. Garber, former Democratic national committeeman from Ohio, had an audience with President Wilson. Ohio patronage was under discussion, and it is understood that Garber pleaded earnestly for recognition of original Wilson men. He argued that the Ohio congressmen and Senator Pomerene are not giving the Wilson element of the party a square deal in parcelling out postmasterships and other desirable pieces of political pie. Garber left Washington immediately after the interview. It is said he did not write out in any of his postoffice fights.

The fund for 1914, as I understand, will build five armories next year. This had already been appropriated, but is not available until February 15, 1914.

The two new armories for 1913 have not been designated and your claim for one of them should be considered. A decision of this matter is awaiting the time of the Governor whose every moment so far this year has been occupied in other matters. I do not yet know when he will be able to meet with us to consider the assignment of the two armories for 1913. With best wishes, I am, Yours cordially, B. L. BARGER, Secretary Ohio State Armory Board.

Pretty Duchess, Sued by Her Husband, May Turn Tables

THIS is the pretty Duchess of Westminster, against whom a suit for divorce was filed by the duke with sensational allegations. The friends of the duchess mostly came to her defense and said that she would not only show that her husband's suspicion was not justified, but would turn the tables and would bring a counter suit naming a popular English show girl. The Westminsters have four children. They have been estranged for some time, and the announcement that the duke had brought suit did not cause any surprise in English society or upon the continent. It was the Duke of Westminster who paid the expenses of sending the English polo team to this country to compete for the international trophy on June 10.

WELL HANDLED IN THE HOUSE

Senate Committee Will Not Alter
Income Tax Section.

WILL OFFER NO AMENDMENTS

Committee Room Piled High With Suggestions and Protests Against the Tax, but the Section Will Be Reported in the Form Received
From the House—Finance Committee
Framing Questions.

Washington, May 23.—No amendment to the income tax section of the Underwood tariff bill is likely to be proposed by the Senate finance committee or Democratic caucus.

Senators Williams, Shively and Gore have the income tax in hand. Though their committee room is piled high with protests and suggestions, the measure is believed to have been well handled in the house. As the objections made to it in original form are thought to have been sufficiently met in amendments before the bill passed the house.

Among the loudest protests coming now are those from mutual insurance companies conducted for profit, but the house amended the original bill as relating to insurance companies and insurance policies, and the senators of the finance committee believe that it is sound.

Complaints from railroad and other holding companies that the law will tax them twice on dividends paid are reported to have been held unsound by members of the committee.

UNREST AMONG THE POPULACE

Disturbance in China, Ending With the Establishment of a Republic,
Echoing Throughout the Island
Kingdom—Latest Developments
Overshadow in Significance the Controversy With the United States.

Washington, May 23.—The news of the serious illness of the emperor of Japan, who is suffering from inflammation of the lungs, was regarded as the most important development in the present situation between the United States and that country over the California land legislation.

The possibilities suggested by the news of the mikado's condition overshadowed in significance the information that the Japanese government is dissatisfied with the reply of the United States to the protest against the California law.

Unofficial information that reached here created the impression that Emperor Yoshihito is in danger.

It is generally conceded here that the death of the emperor would be likely to result in a political upheaval in Japan. The disturbance in China, ending with the establishment of a republic, has been echoing in Japan, and the symptoms of political unrest manifest among the Japanese populace for the last two years have been a source of great anxiety to the gov-

HAVE RECONCILIATION PLANS

Will Submit Same at the Meeting of the National Executive Committee
the Capital Tomorrow—Republican
Senators Decide to Confer With Republicans of the House—Would Recapture Control of Congress.

Washington, May 23.—This city is the center of Republican activity.

Republican senators are urging a joint senate and house caucus for immediate reorganization of the congressional campaign committee to seek reclamation of Republican power in Congress next year. Progressive Republicans are conferring on plans of reconciliation of the divided party, and members of the national executive committee are assembling for a meeting here tomorrow.

Most significant of recent party developments since the defeat at the polls last November was the conference of Republican and progressive Republican senators to institute reorganization of the congressional campaign committee, which house leaders futilely attempted for several weeks.

Thirty-one senators attended the conference, presided over by Senator Gallinger, and with almost unanimous approval a committee of five was appointed to confer with house leaders, with a view to holding a joint caucus as soon as possible to clear away the party difficulties.

Leaders pointed to the personnel of this consulting committee as an indication of the general effort being made to reunite the party. Its members consisting of progressives and regulars as well. The committee members are Senators Gallinger, Townsend, Clark of Wyoming, Norris and Jones.

To Name McKinley's Successor.

The five will consult with the house Republicans and expect to find no opposition for a house caucus, the house Republicans having found trouble already in trying to reorganize the congressional committee to choose the successor to William B. McKinley as chairman.

The conciliators appointed as a result of the Chicago progressive Republican conference a few weeks ago have been called to meet with Senator Cummins today to plan for presentation of their plans to the national executive committee. The members of the conciliation committee are Senators Cummins, Crawford and Jones; Representatives Cramton, Michigan; Rogers, Massachusetts; Anderson, Minnesota, and former Governor Hadley of Missouri.

The progressive wing of the party favors a convention for rearrangement of the apportionment, with a view to strengthening the apportionment among Republican states. A proposition is urged either to arbitrarily increase the representation in the northern or reduce the representation in the southern states.

Senator Owens' Plan For Cloture Rule
Is Opposed by Minority.

Washington, May 23.—Senator Owens' plan for a cloture rule in the senate, limiting debate on the Wilson-Underwood tariff bill when it reaches the floor, met general opposition among minority members. The Oklahoma senator, however, reiterated his intention to fight for the limitation on speechmaking. Opposing the idea, Senator Bristow of Kansas charged that the time-limit rule in the house had turned out legislation "full of jokers and inefficiencies," and that to adopt such a rule in the senate would be nothing short of national calamity.

FURNISHED DYNAMITE FOUND IN LAWRENCE

Wealthy Quarryman Becomes a Witness For the State.

Boston, May 23.—William H. Rice, owner of a granite quarry in Quincy and a resident of that city, who is under indictment for illegally transporting the dynamite planted in Lawrence during the textile strike year ago this winter, became a witness for the state at the trial of President William M. Wood of the American Woolen company, Frederick E. Atteaux, a dye manufacturer, and Dennis Collins, for conspiring to "plant" the explosive in Lawrence for the purpose of discrediting the strikers.

Rice testified that he supplied the dynamite which was found by the police in Lawrence, furnishing it to Ernest W. Pitman, now dead, upon the latter's request that he "loan" him some of the explosive for the purpose of doing some blasting on a job he had in Worcester. The witness corroborated the testimony of John J. Breen and Dennis Collins that the dynamite was turned over to them by Pitman. Witness gave Pitman, he said, 20 or 25 sticks of dynamite wrapped in burlap and paper, and in addition some detonating caps.

200 PETITIONS OUT TO SECURE STATE AID TO FIGHT HOG CHOLERA

EVERY VOTER URGED TO SIGN ONE AT ONCE

Immediate Action Will Give This County Prestige in Securing $20,000 Appropriation in Effort to Eliminate Plague Which Robbed Fayette County Farmers of $250,000 in One Year and is Still Sweeping County Yearly.

Two hundred petitions are now being placed in circulation throughout the county, to be signed by every voter in the county who is interested in stamping out the swine plague which has been costing Fayette county so much for a great many years, and which is commonly known as the cholera.

A number of the petitions were placed in circulation Friday, and the farmers and voters generally are signing them very liberally. The petitions are given in full as follows:

TO THE HONORABLE, THE STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE, STATE OF OHIO:

The undersigned citizens of Fayette county, Ohio, respectfully petition your Honorable Body to designate Fayette county for the purpose of eradicating the disease among hogs commonly known as hog cholera, your authority for so doing being the act of the General Assembly of the state appropriating $20,000 for such purpose.

Fayette county is one of the greatest hog producing counties of the state and the ravages of the disease among hogs has been as great, if not greater, than in any other county in the state, it losing from that cause in 1912 a total of 32,592 hogs.

We assure you that if our petition is granted, our citizens will lend every assistance to those having the work in charge.

It is planned to make a whirlwind campaign for signers of the petitions, and every taxpayer is urged to sign one of the petitions and see that his neighbor does likewise.

The petitions will be scattered throughout the county, placed in all the banks of the county, and many other public places, while most of them will be carried by those interested in securing the $20,000 state aid in stamping out the hog cholera in Fayette county.

It is regarded as a chance of a lifetime for the farmers to save untold thousands of dollars, as during the fiscal year ending April 1, 1912, the loss in Fayette county due to the hog cholera was about a quarter of a million dollars, and at that rate the loss to Fayette county farmers in four

MERCHANTS AGREE TO CLOSE STORES FOR HALF HOLIDAY

Petitions are out for the Wednesday afternoon closing of banks, grocery stores, department stores and places of business in general, and already a large number of the business men have expressed themselves in favor of the mid-week half-holiday, and the signers are growing in number hourly.

All grocers with the exception of one have already signed the agreement for the Wednesday afternoon closing during the months of June, July and August, while some of the largest retail merchants have joined those who have agreed to observe the half holiday during the hot months.

The petition or agreement has not yet been presented to many merchants but will be within the next few days, so that by the first of next week it is thought that a general mid-week closing, such as observed in many neighboring cities, will be announced, to begin the first week in June and continue until the last week in August.

In connection with the afternoon off duty, free matinees are now being planned so that the afternoons may be turned into one of pleasure to all, and practically all of the citizens visit the fair grounds to attend the matinee.

SUPT. MCCLAIN GIVEN SURPRISE

The eighteen teachers of Central building delighted Supt. Wm. McClain with a surprise picnic supper Thursday night. The teachers arrived at the McClain home taking Mr. McClain entirely unawares and bringing baskets filled to the brim with good things to eat. It had been the intention to have the supper on the lawn, but owing to the rainy night the lawn had to be deserted for the dining room. Nevertheless the supper was spread in genuine picnic fashion on the floor and proved as merry indoors as it would have been outside.

The feast was followed by a round of toasts, Miss Clara Thurston filling the role of toastmistress happily and each teacher honoring Supt. McClain with a clever toast.

The entire party wound up the evening taking in the picture shows.

SIDEWALK OPEN TO PUBLIC ONCE MORE

Considerable delay has resulted in clearing the sidewalk and street, owing to continual building operations.

It is planned to have the entire obstruction removed from the street in time for the encampment.

Welcome The Veterans

Only a few short weeks and Washington C. H. will again throw open its doors to the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic on the 47th anniversary of the Ohio encampment.

Once again the rap-tap-tap of the drum corps will be heard and Old Glory will again unfurl the tattered remnants of those proud pennants which fluttered over the boys in blue as they waved goodby to their loved ones in '61. But they will now wave over so few of those who marched away! Each year sees the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic more and more depleted and each year the faded flags wave over fewer in number and feebler in body.

Far away to the oncoming generation seem the days of '61, but those men who responded to the bugle call, no matter how long the hike nor how great the danger should never cease to call forth veneration.

The love and sympathy of a remembering nation should be the staff upon which the old soldier can rely as long as there is left a veteran of the G. A. R.

Those of the present day who know nothing of those days of war, of the hourly danger, of the untold hardships and discomforts, of those boys who at the perilous front seemed for the present generation its peace and prosperity, should welcome every opportunity to pay their debt to the soldier of the rebellion.

Once before the people of Washington banded as a unit to give to the State Encampment a reception so hospitable, a welcome so heartsome, an entertainment so pleasing, that many of "the boys" passed the word that they had had the best time of their lives. There was the opportunity to come in close touch not possible in the big city, and ever since "the boys" have wanted to come back.

Now they are coming back and it is up to Washington C. H. to see that they are not disappointed. It is up to Washington C. H. to throw open its doors as freely as before and to insure to them just as good a time as they had then.

The success of the encampment of the week of June 16th depends upon every individual in this community.

If each man, woman and child does whatever is possible for the comfort and welfare of the visiting old soldiers, they will carry away another recollection as full of delight as that of the former encampment.

Nor should heartsome welcome be accorded any less freely to the wives and daughters, members of the women's auxiliaries who will accompany the veterans. The mothers and sisters, who rose in the gray dawn of '61 to bid sons and brothers goodby, cherished just as deep a patriotism, and theirs was not the easiest part.

Rally for the success of the encampment, people of Washington! Make it not alone as good an encampment as the former one here; make it the greatest one the Ohio veterans have ever had in the splendid welcome given to each man who wore the blue and to each woman affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic.

All Classes of Children Should Be Educated Together

By Professor ROYAL MEEKER, Princeton University

I BELIEVE our system of education can be improved. I note that boys and girls drop out of school at all stages of the educational process, but FAIL TO DROP SMOOTHLY INTO ANY PART OF OUR ECONOMIC SYSTEM.

The result is much confusion, loss of time, idleness, worry, misdirected effort, incompetence growing into HABITUAL LOAFING, PAUPERISM, DELINQUENCY AND CRIME. Alienists ascribe a large proportion of insanity to economic causes—the insufficiency of a four hundred dollar income to purchase eight hundred dollars' worth of minimum of subsistence.

No change, however drastic, in the school law can possibly eliminate insanity, feeble mindedness, pauperism, crime, poverty and incompetence.

A GOOD SCHOOL SYSTEM, HOWEVER, PROPERLY RELATED TO THE WORLD WHICH BUILDS AND MAINTAINS SCHOOLHOUSES AND SCHOOL SYSTEMS should greatly reduce these undesirable manifestations of imperfect adjustment.

ALL THE CHILDREN OF THE WHOLE COMMUNITY SHOULD BE EDUCATED TOGETHER IN THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS IN ORDER TO ACCUSTOM THEM TO CO-OPERATIVE THINKING AND ACTION, SO THAT WHEN THEY COME INTO FULL CITIZENSHIP THEY WILL NOT BE OBLIGED TO BEGIN THEIR SOCIAL AND POLITICAL EDUCATION AT THE BEGINNING. THE CHILDREN OF RICH AND POOR, PROFESSOR AND HODCARRIER, SHOULD ALL ALIKE BE OBLIGED TO ATTEND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

CHURCH BELLS IN THE COUNTRY
Across the miles I hear the Sabbath bells,
Their silver voices mingling near and far,
Calling from vale to vale where hamlets are,
Through woodland aisles and o'er the barren fells.

The fields are quiet as if hushed in prayer;
In shady groves the birds a service hold;
While brooks are chanting lyric anthems fair.

In city streets He lives and toils with men,
And hearts are there who truly give Him praise;
But closer still He seems in these calm ways,
As if He walked in humble paths again.

To him the open fields were holy fanes,
Where winds brought offering of perfume sweet;
He sought the peace of country vales and lanes.

Such thought, O Sabbath bells, you bring to me,
When in the morn I hear you summoning
Our hearts to prayer, when in the eve you ring,
Soft through the dusk, a benedicite!

Little Cupid drew back the string of his bow,
And taking steady aim, and true,
Let his straightest and sharpest arrow go.

And it Pearce an old bachelor's heart clear through.
And it happens that we are called to congratulate our old friend Mike on his transit from the forlorn condition of buttonless shirts and undarned socks to the blissful realm of conjugal happiness.

A heavy conundrum is the following: Why were the young ladies of Washington very lonesome last week? Answer: Because no males came all week.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

An army aviation corps distinct from the signal corps is proposed in a bill recently introduced into Congress by chairman of Military Affairs Committee. It would provide a detail of a major, two captains and more than 30 first lieutenants, and a full quota of enlisted men to found a military aviation school. Officers and men would receive a 50 per cent increase in pay while serving in the aviation corps.

Jacob M. Schmidlapp, of Cincinnati will be the Ohio member of a delegation headed by Andrew Carnegie that will go to Berlin next month to present to Emperor William an address of congratulation on the completion of 25 years of peaceful reign.

The government of England is making representations to France with a view to the expulsion of the eminent leader of the militant suffragettes, Christabel Pankhurst from Paris on the ground that the right of political asylum has been violated by the use of that asylum for furtherance of a criminal conspiracy in England. If the French foreign office take this view Pankhurst could be expelled in 48 hours.

The New Haven road now issues rebate checks worth $1 to passengers on their five-hour limited trains between Boston and New York whenever one of these trains is 30 minutes or more late. Needless to say, this does not happen very often, perhaps once a month.

San Francisco's greater municipal railroad system, tapping every big residential section—the Mission, Potrero, Western Addition, Richmond, North Beach, Harbor View and the down-town districts, and costing over $3,500,000 will be completed before the World's Fair opens. The city engineer claims this undertaking will not only be profitable to the city during the fair, but forever afterwards.

MANY STUDENTS WILL ATTEND CELEBRATION

Ohio is manifesting great interest in the various features which will mark the commencement exercises of Ohio State University when the 10th anniversary of the founding of that institution will be celebrated.

This county numbers among its citizens a large number of graduates and former students. A number of these are preparing to attend the celebration, June 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Among the leading Fayette county men and women, who received their education at Ohio State university are: Howard Hagler, W. F. Barnett, president County Alumni Association; R. R. Penn, secretary County Association, Washington C. H.; Fred L. West, Bloomingburg; Arthur R. Davis, Jeffersonville.

One of the principal features of the celebration will be the historical pageant which will not be as serious as its designation might suggest. Each of the classes will be represented by as many of its members as possible, and these will be garbed in uniform, or dressed in some fantastic manner which will recall the characteristic incidents of their school days. There will be bands, banners, floats, symbolic figures, decorations and all the paraphernalia that goes to make up a real pageant.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. Glenn Atkins, class of '88, of Providence, R. I. There will also be a dedication of a memorial to Prof. Benjamin Thomas. A luncheon for men, another for women, and the annual alumni dinner and other features, the details of which are now being worked out, are in the program.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from colds and exposure resulted which Foley's Honey and Tar Compound helped to alleviate. L. Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time. My wife would not keep house without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." Blackmer and Tanquary.

WEDDING BRINGS OUT WORLD'S DIGNATARIES

CZAR REACHES BERLIN

Welcomed at Station by Kaiser William and King George.

Berlin, May 23.—Emperor William and King George embraced and greeted Nicholas II, Emperor of Russia, on his arrival here. They have come to Berlin for the wedding tomorrow of the kaiser's daughter, Princess Victoria Louise, to Prince Ernest, son of the Duke of Cumberland.

The czar entered the kaiser's capital hedged about by hundreds of his anxious subjects. He drove between lines of soldiers standing shoulder to shoulder with fixed bayonets, along a route literally swarming with police. At the same time King George was driving through side streets back to the palace in an open motorcar without an escort or guard of any kind.

It was a day of royal entries into Berlin and the czar was kept on the move welcoming his guests at the station.

DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR IN NEIGHBORING TOWN

The entire night police force of Wilmington is under arrest. Said force consists of two patrolmen, Henry Collier, employed by the town and Al McCrey, employed by the merchants.

A night or two ago the men became involved in a quarrel and ended with a rough-and-tumble scrap, using their maces freely. Collier knocked his adversary down, and McCrey pulled a gun and commenced pumping lead at Collier, who succeeded in disarming McCrey. None of the bullets took effect.

Both miltions of the law were locked up and their trial will come up later. The quarrel has been one of long standing, and it is expected that both men will lose their positions.

"Oh!" Exclaims Mrs. Marshall.
"Beauty!" Says Miss Harriman

Photos copyright, 1913, by American Press Association.

MRS. THOMAS R. MARSHALL, wife of the vice president of the United States, was an interested spectator at the recent annual horse show in Washington. This snapshot proves it. Mrs. Marshall was caught just as she started to exclaim at some particularly interesting bit of horsemanship. She is an ardent horsewoman herself when she finds time to ride. She's up on many of the fine points of horsemanship and can tell at a quick glance whether the judges are going to have a hard time rendering a decision or not. Mrs. Marshall was sitting in the box with a friend when this was taken. Another interested spectator was Miss Harriman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman of New York. This young society bud is shown here petting one of the horses in the stalls.

Columbus, O., May 23.—Announcement was made at the adjutant general's office that all of the Ohio national guard will camp at Camp Perry this year. Dates for the encampments of the various regiments have not yet been set, but probably will begin about July 1. Officers of the Ohio guard will have charge of Camp Perry this summer during the international rifle shoot, which will begin about the middle of August, and which will be participated in by at least 16 foreign countries.

Strangled to Death.

Cleveland, O., May 23.—An unidentified man, about 35, was strangled to death by his own coat in an attempt to climb over a picket fence near the Union station. One of the man's legs was cut off. Two cars were found in his pockets, one bearing the name of Arthur Welles, Columbus, O., and the other that of James Devoe, Louisville, Ky.

Brooklyn, May 23.—A protest was filed today with President Thomas J. erning class in that country. Such an upheaval in the political affairs of Japan undoubtedly would serve to distract the attention of the people of that country from the present controversy with the United States.

The anxiety with which the administration regards the preservation of friendly relations with the Japanese government was indicated in the haste with which President Wilson dispatched a message of sympathy to the mikado. The news of the emperor's illness hardly had been published when a message was sent from the White House in advance of any official dispatch from the American embassy at Tokyo giving confirmation of the press reports.

The president's message to the emperor was as follows:

"We could not afford to buy expensive advertising space year after year, to tell the women of America that 'KAYSER' Gloves are the best in style, fit and finish—if it were not true. 'KAYSER' gloves cost no more than the ordinary kind—and are worth double in quality, fit and value. Don't accept the 'just as good' kind, there's a way to tell the genuine—'Look in the Hand'—if you find the name 'KAYSER'—you have the kind that 'don't wear out' at the finger ends."

AT TARGET PRACTICEThree Killed and Nine Hurt When Breech Blows Off Gun.

Charleston, S. C., May 23.—Three soldiers were killed and nine or more seriously injured at Fort Moultrie, when the breech blew off a 3-inch gun which was being used for target practice. Privates Baker, Christensen and Dalton were killed, the former being cut in two and dying instantly. Captain Hanna, who was standing with several other officers of the coast artillery, was badly wounded in the side by a fragment from the exploded can non. Hospital Steward Lamar was injured in the right arm and hand.

It was reported that the breech had not been properly closed after the insertion of a cartridge, and that when the cap was exploded the breech was thrown back with terrific force. The wounded men were rushed to the post hospital, where immediate attention was given them.

Youth Who Stabbed Father to Death
Occupies Cell in Tomba.

New York, May 23.—What makes the police not so queer when they see me?" asked Harry Mann, a truck driver, as he was bundled into a mud wagon. "Did I beat up a cop or do they think I'm dirty?"

The answer to the question of the powerfully built youth is found in a flat on Twenty-ninth street, where his aged mother, weeping constantly, is watching over the body of her husband and nursing her other son, Winfield, who is suffering from several stab wounds. For in drunken delirium Harry Mann stabbed to death his father, a civil war veteran, and slashed his younger brother as he tried to stay his arm. He remembers nothing of this.

Harry, when he was a boy, had been hit on the head by a swiftly batted baseball, as a result he was subject to epileptic fits.

framed an amendment to the resolution proposing a long list of questions in which some of Senator LaFollette's queries are included. The questions will relate to production, raw material and transportation costs here and abroad; proportion of tariff duties, which cover production cost differences here and abroad and the proportion which amounts to a manufacturer's profit, and other tariff problems. Senator Simmons said there would be about 25 questions in all.

Suspension of Execution of Sentence
Rescinded by the Court.

New York, May 23.—The department of justice ordered its agents here to arrest Henry W. A. Page, a linen and cotton merchant, who was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the District of Columbia on conviction of having libeled members of the House judiciary committee but was paroled during good behavior. The suspension of execution of the sentence was rescinded by the supreme court of the District of Columbia, which imposed the original sentence. It is understood that the action of the court was taken at the request of the department of justice following the receipt by President Wilson of a lengthy document from Page, in which the merchant complained of the treatment he had received at the hands of American courts.

The Essence of Success is the Proper Use of Time.

Every prosperous business man is habitually enterprising and alert. He estimates the minimum time required for every transaction, then tries to finish the work within the allotted period.

To the mind of such a man, the question frequently recurs throughout the day, "Can not this be done by Long Distance," and upon consideration, he often decides that the telephone method is not only practical but preferable.
